WORKSHOP

"INTERREG IPA PROGRAMMES: WHAT'S IN THERE FOR YOUTH?" - PRESENTING RESULTS FROM C4CF

On 23 January, our C4CF team was invited to join a workshop "INTERREG IPA PROGRAMMES: WHAT'S IN THERE FOR YOUTH?", organized by Cooperation and Development Institute.

During the workshop, Anelija Mitrova [from the Youth Alliance team] and Vladimir Lazov [from Municipality of Valandovo] had a chance to present the results of the 'Cooperation for a common future' initiative in front of young people, youth stakeholders, as well as local and national organizations working on youth policies.

The Interreg IPA programs offer many opportunities for youth to contribute to local development of the territories, good neighborly relations, as well as increased solidarity in the society!

ANNOUNCEMENT

GOOD NEWS EVERYONE!

WE ARE OFFICIALLY STARTING THE THIRD PHASE OF OUR INITIATIVE!

In this next phase, we will be focusing on the strategy for establishment of the initiative, meaning that our focus will be put on strategic planning and development of the structural background and basis for the bilateral youth cooperation offices.

Parallel to that, we will continue working on one of our most important priorities which is including even a larger number of young people, than we have so far, by having more bilateral activities on a local and national level!

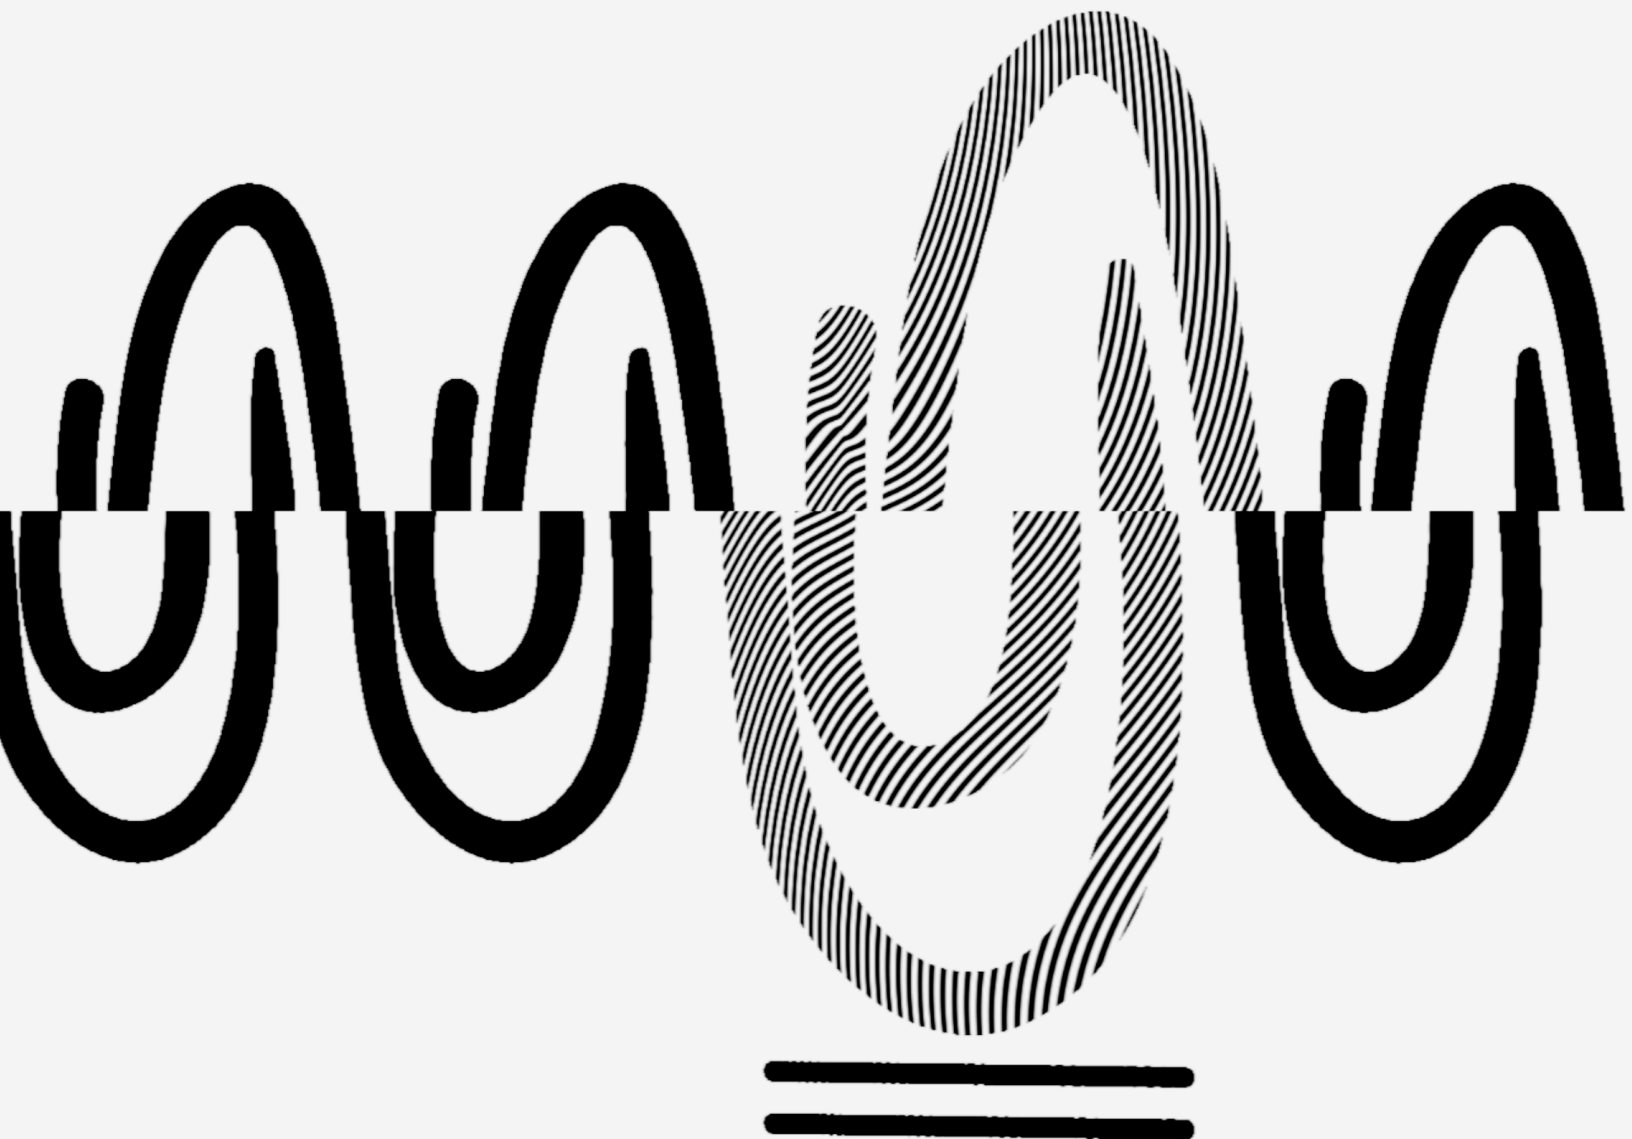

Stay tuned for much more....
